HYMN.

BY A FORMER MEMBER OF THE GRADUATING CLASS.

How light the toil! the way how clear!
 As forth we start,
 The tears that flow for loved ones here
 Are joy in part.
 Oh, be the burden always light!
 Be duty foremost in our sight!
 May we ne'er lose the wish for right
 Now in each heart!

Life seems to us so bright and fair,
 Scarce yet begun;
 We have a work to finish, ere
 Our race is run.

May our resolves be firm and high!
 Our noble task done cheerfully,
 May that voice greet us when we die,
 Which said "Well done!"

There is a path narrow and steep,
 By Jesus trod;
 It winds through forest dark and deep,
 O'er many a sod.
 Through Heaven's gate a beaming ray
 Turns dreary darkness into day;—
 We'll choose this narrow, thorny way;
 It leads to God.

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS.

BY MISS MARIANNE KENT, OF LOWELL.

PARTING SONG.

BY A MEMBER OF THE GRADUATING CLASS.

To join the army militant
 Upon life's battle-field,
 We leave these Normal ranks to-day,—
 Our steadfast faith our shield.

With willing hearts we came, to learn
 Of warriors tried and true;
 Whose crowns, our love and gratitude
 Do this day weave anew.

Our zeal hath gained fresh ardor here,
 To strive for truth and right.
 May each one, sacred armor take;
 Be strong in holy might!

We hear the distant bugle note
 Sound from the world's wide plain;
 We haste to join the earnest host,
 And help them vict'ry gain.

God grant that, when our day is o'er,
 And all our conflicts cease,
 Where'er our sandalled feet have trod,
 There spring the fruits of peace.
