Hello Again,

This time from a sunny England – so sunny that I am suffering from a slight sunburn that I got in a few hours today, last winter during the foggy season, the thought of ever seeing the sun over here was nonexistent.

We had “The Song at Bernardette” here last week. It was amazing how the Protestant kids enjoyed such a long show of this type. The picture followed the book faithfully – except for the scenes showing the lady which had I thought detracted from the effect. Have you seen “Going My Way” – religiously funny?

Thanks for the news letter and the new list. Note that my APO has changed!! But we are still in the same place. Hope we get into France eventually. My tour is not completed until I’ve seen France, Germany, Norway and [Sweden].

So long!
Don.
